5U.LO

the honours: it is to you they are due, while from you to is nothing due save what pleases you^ I am off to ioiTmy advance guard. The weather .s homble, wrth much snow; allis going well, however. jjOth. Marshal Sonlt wffl move to Austerlrtz.

23 Brunn: , rr'o Talleyrand.) I think the Austnans have more vm-nSters on hand than the abduction . o f the . Supposing they did abduct her, what the devn suppose they could do with her ? I shall soon be as I have decided to give my troops a much at

o the Emperor of Eussia.) Sire. I am sending

•

will hold me as one who desires to do what may be The Emperors of Germany and of Eussia are at and c o l s , and he is to start with Ins dms-at one o'clock in the morning.

Well, Marbot, how many mounted chasseurs are then in my Guard? Are there 1200 ?